This Learning Opportunity supports continued implementation of Alberta Education Goal 3: Success for First Nations, Métis and Inuit (FNMI) students, and the FNMI Conceptual Collaborative Frameworks whereby FNMI parents and communities develop outcomes, strategies, and measures designed to improve FNMI student success in school.

The goals of the workshop materials are:

1. To raise awareness and understanding among parents and school authorities about FNMI traditional parenting skills and their implications for student success in school based on diversity and respecting local cultural protocols.
2. To advocate and support increased involvement and improved participation between FNMI parents and schools

This learning opportunity is offered as a result of a grant from Alberta Education to support implementation
