In this full day, hands-on workshop, we will explore how infusing First Nations, Métis and Inuit perspectives into curriculum can benefit all learners. Participants will gain:

- A greater appreciation and understanding of First Nations, Métis and Inuit cultures in Alberta
- A clearer picture of how to access community supports and other resources for infusion
- Strategies for infusing First Nations, Métis and Inuit perspectives and pedagogy into the learning environment

Workshop facilitators will include a combination of FNMI managers from Alberta Education as well the FNMI facilitators from the Alberta Regional Professional Development Consortium. Participants will also have an opportunity, through exploration of the digital resource, to “meet” Elders, Knowledge Keepers and Cultural Advisors from Alberta’s FNMI communities. Participants are encouraged to bring fully-charged laptops with Wifi capability. (iPads are not compatible with this digital resource.)

Walking Together: First Nations, Métis and Inuit Perspectives is now available at:
<http://www.learnalberta.ca/content/aswt/index.html>.

Three follow-up webinars will be held from 4:00-5:00 pm on:

- April 18, 2012 (Worldviews)
- April 25, 2012 (Indigenous Pedagogy)
- May 2, 2012 (Aboriginal Rights and Treaties)

The webinars will also be archived. Webinar details will be available on the Edmonton Regional Learning Consortium website.
