LEARNING COACHES & COACHING TEAMS CREATING THE KALEIDOSCOPE TO SUPPORT INCLUSIVE EDUCATION

Date: Thursday, November 3, 2011
Time: 8:45am – 3:30pm
Location: LCI – 1701 5th Ave S Lethbridge
Cost: $50 includes lunch and refreshments for individual registrations
$40 a person for 3 or more people from the same school district. You must register as a team and all names must be on the same registration page or by online group registration.

This Symposium will support schools and jurisdictions to develop the capacity required to implement changes in practice designed to address the needs of all students in a culture of inclusive education. Planned in collaboration with Alberta Education and the University of Lethbridge, this professional learning opportunity, is meant to be responsive to the needs of educators in the province, as well as the priorities of Alberta Education.

The Symposium will provide foundational information from Alberta Education and introduce resources being developed to support teachers in Alberta, as they endeavour to meet the diverse learning needs of the students in their classrooms.

Opportunities will be provided, to learn about best practices and challenges, from colleagues in Alberta, currently moving forward with a learning coaches' model, and research findings from Alberta Education's Research Pilot Projects will be shared.

Time to network, ask questions and clarify information with Alberta Education representatives, will be provided, in order to support your implementation planning to move your school or jurisdiction forward with Action on Inclusion initiatives.

Symposium sessions may be video conferenced from the Lethbridge site to other ARPDC sites throughout Alberta, by contacting your regional ARPDC consortium to arrange a site in your region.

Payments received after workshop date will be assessed a $10 late fee
