Introduction to Historical Thinking-Webinar

Presented by: Lindsay Gibson

Date: March 20, 2012

Location: Webinar

About this workshop: This session introduces six concepts that help students go beyond merely learning about the past to begin to think critical about history. A key feature of the session is learning to use six Take2 videos to teach students about the key ideas behind each of the six core concepts in historical thinking.

About the presenter: Lindsay Gibson is a secondary school social studies teacher currently working on his doctorate at the University of British Columbia in historical thinking.
