Program

Many administrators and learning support teachers have recently begun offering reading intervention programs for striving readers. In this session, Dr. Deborah Karrah will share her combination of experience and expertise as an administrator and learning support teacher to offer a sound basis for beginning a phonological and phonics-based intervention program for your students. This session will include a concrete structure for the teaching sessions.

What does an intervention lesson look like?

Content will include:

- multi-sensory intervention lesson structure;
- differentiating lessons for younger and older students;
- building learner confidence;
- progress monitoring.

Presenters

Dr. Deborah Karrah

Dr. Deborah Karrah is an experienced educator (Administrator and Learning Support Teacher) who is a Structured Literacy specialist and Certified Orton-Gillingham instructor. She provides school division professional learning sessions that focus on the foundational literacy skills of phonological awareness and phonics development. In her private practice, she offers reading as well as writing remediation for children who have dyslexia and dysgraphia. For the past three years, Dr. Karrah has also been collaborating with Harvard University in a research study on an innovative dyslexia screening technology developed by a multi-disciplinary team in Greece.
