Program

Prior to joining us for this series, please review this video which reviews the curriculum architecture and key features, as it may help your understanding of the session.

Are you gearing up for curriculum implementation?

Join us for a four-day series where we will explore key concepts in the new curriculum through a daily Div II literacy structure model. Teachers will experience and be supported in developing engaging openers, mini-lessons, learning routines, and various activities connected to oral language, morphology, connecting reading and writing instruction, and multimodal composition. As we know, assessment is an integral piece of instruction and conversations and examples of assessment will be included throughout the day.

Pick which set of days works for you (July 10-13 or August 21-24), as the content for the two weeks will be the same.
