Learning Opportunity

The Aspiring and New Leaders Collaborative Community is a unique opportunity designed to cultivate leadership skills for all aspiring and new teacher leaders and school administrators in their first few years in their roles.

Beginning in Fall 2024 and concluding in June 2025, this program aims to build leadership capacity, offering participants the chance to explore their readiness and interest in leadership roles. Through a combination of deepening skills, expanding knowledge, and reflecting on practical experience, this program complements existing leadership development initiatives both within and beyond your current school division.

Please find the session descriptions here

Program purpose:

- Build leadership capacity
- Provide an opportunity for individuals to determine interest and readiness for leadership roles as a teacher-leader or administrator
- Cultivate a reflective process
- Deepen skills and knowledge required to lead and manage in schools
- Complement other leadership development programs

Who should attend:

- Teachers, Teacher leads, Coordinators, Consultants

Reflective questions:

1. "Where am I on my leadership journey?"
 2. "Where do I want to go?"
 3. "How will I get there?"
 4. "What evidence will I collect?"
 5. "Who and what will support me?"

Presenters

Thérèse deChamplain-Good

Thérèse deChamplain-Good, formerly the Assistant Superintendent of Educational Excellence at Elk Island Catholic School Division, now channels her extensive experience into Good Educational Consulting. Thérèse has dedicated her career to benefiting student learning and fostering leadership growth in educators.

With 35 years in education, Thérèse has taught at all grade levels. In 2000, she began her administrative journey as a vice-principal, progressing through various leadership roles including Administrator, Consultant, Director, Senior Manager at Alberta Education, and Executive Director of the Edmonton Regional Learning Consortium.

A native of Legal, Alberta, Thérèse holds a Bachelor of Education in Secondary Education for French Immersion Schools and a Master of Education in Educational Studies in Leadership, both from the University of Alberta.

Throughout her career, Thérèse has been responsible for system assurance, inclusive education, curriculum development, assessment and instruction, faith formation, wellness, leadership, and teacher development.

She is now committed to leveraging her expertise through Good Educational Consulting to support school divisions and educators in achieving their educational goals.

Registration Notes

Zoom link will be sent out in the registration email. Please check your junk/spam folder if you don't see it right away.

Recordings will be sent out following each session and available for 30 days following. These sessions are highly participatory and you will find that you get most out of attending live or watching the playback to review the sessions, rather than watching the recordings on their own.
