Learning Opportunity

Are you wondering when it's appropriate to use decodable and predictable texts? How do I use them? What are good sources of predictable texts? Join Bev Smith as she shares some of the latest research about these topics as well as providing practical planning suggestions and strategies to use with the Flyleaf Decodables available on New LearnAlberta.

Presenters

Bev Smith

With over 35 years of experience in education, including 25 years in the classroom, Bev Smith has a rich background in teaching and leadership. As the former Literacy and EAL Lead Teacher for the Lethbridge School Division, she specializes in literacy, English as an Additional Language (EAL), and fostering a culture of thinking. Currently, she shares her expertise as a Designer of Professional Learning for APLC - The Consortium at SAPDC, where she continues to champion responsive teaching and student-centered learning. Passionate about literacy and educational innovation, Bev is dedicated to shaping impactful learning experiences for educators and students alike.

Registration Notes

Zoom link will be sent out in the registration email. Please check your junk/spam folder if you don't see it right away.

We recommend joining us live to get the most out of your learning, however, a recording will be available after each session.

All times are MT (Mountain Time).
