Program

Get a head start on 2018/19 lesson planning and discover some quick activities to use this school year! Learn about nutrition resources and lesson plans available from provincial and national organizations. If your school is involved in the School Nutrition Program, this webinar can help you to meet the nutrition education requirements of the program. This 30 minute webinar will provide you with ideas to bring healthy eating messages into subjects such as math, science, social studies, and language arts!
