Program

Tribes Cooperative Learning is the approach that allows us to build Inclusion, Influence and Community in our classrooms and schools. The Four Agreements provide a framework for students and adults to meaningfully interact, cooperate and grow. This training will provide participants with the understanding of how we can reach all students. Through interactive activities, participants will leave with strategies that can be implemented the very next day. Be prepared to share, laugh, grow and learn.

Presenters

Terry Freeman

Terry realizes that the key to successful teaching was relationships and community. Having served as a teacher, coordinator, Director, Administrator and Consultant relationships and community were always the focus. Terry has worked with several Divisions across Western Canada, presented provincially, nationally and internationally, and has shared his passion for learning with hundreds of teachers.
