

Preserving and Restoring Indigenous Culture (2-3:30 pm)

Presented By: Victor Lethbridge

Date(s):

Monday, September 27, 2021
2:00 PM - 3:30 PM

Session Location:

Zoom Online Meeting
Zoom, Lethbridge, AB

Registration Fee:

Free

<https://www.sapdc.ca/register/7694>

Audience: Teachers, Indigenous Leaders within schools, Administrators

Grade Level: K-12

Special Notes:

This learning opportunity is made possible through funding from Alberta Education.

There will be repeat of this session from 4:00 - 5:30 pm.

About the Session:

Award-winning author Victor Lethbridge will introduce and share with attendees their new video, share some of his learnings and experiences to support teachers in their possible use of the video with their classrooms. Victor will share personal insights into intergenerational trauma and the impact of his Lakota grandfather's residential school experience. He will also share a reading of his new book, "You're Just Right".

View the promotional trailer

This Indigenous awareness school project includes a history of Canadian Residential Schools presented by author Victor Lethbridge, a member of Wood Mountain Lakota First Nation.

TQS: 1d, 2e and 5

About the Presenter(s):

Victor Lethbridge

Victor Lethbridge is an author and member of Wood Mountain Lakota First Nation.