Program

In this session we will explore the concept of the Pedagogy of Early Literacy. We'll delve into the practice of introducing literacy experiences to young children and explore our way of thinking about our teaching and learning around early literacy. In this consideration we will look at the concept of wise practices and what that means in this context.

Presenters

Joanne Keilty

Joanne has been a member of the field of Early Childhood Education for 38 years. For many years she was an Instructor at Lethbridge College in the Early Childhood Education program. Before, and during this time, Joanne was involved with group and family child care programs, kindergarten programs, pre-school programs and out-of-school programs.

Joanne was involved with the pilot project of Play, Participation and Possibilities: An Early Learning and Child Care Curriculum Framework for Alberta.

Currently Joanne works with ARCQE (Alberta Resource Centre for Quality Enhancement), and MRU as a Pedagogical Leader and Partner in supporting programs as they begin to implement Flight: Alberta's Early Learning and Care Framework.
